Notes for JOHN WESLEY McCLENNEY:

His obituary reads, "The entire community was shocked last Thursday night when word was passed that death had claimed John Wesley McClenney, former Postmaster and business man and lifelong resident of the city. Mr. McClenney, who became ill near the close of a ball game thursday night retired to his home, 200 South Seventh street, and expired shortly after the arrival of medical aid. He was born at Morrilton, March 1, 1883, the son of John C. and Sara P. McClenney, a prominent early family who moved here in 1889. His entire life with the exception of three years spent at Allen, Oklahoma, was spent here. For many years he had been a member of the Baptist Church and the Masonic order. For several years he was engaged in the barber business and later became a partner in the grocery business with his father-in-law, the lat J. W. Johnson. Although he never saught public office, Mr. McClenney for many years was active and influential in politics. In recognition of his loyalty to his party he was named Heber Springs postmaster during the administration of President Woodrow Wilson. His appointment continued for nine years. Out of respect to his memory, all business houses of the city were closed for the funeral services held from the chapel of the Olmstead funeral home at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. A. Pearce, pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. W. W. Albright of Bald Knob, a former pastor and close friend of Mr. McClenney, officiated. A quartet composed of Alton Bittle, Bynum Stark, Otto Foset (sic) and Miss D... Bittle with Miss Joan Stark as organist, sang. The overflowing crowd of friends who assembled for the rites and the beautiful floral offerings attested the high esteem in which he was held by ... where he had spent his life. A large number of out-of-town relatives and friends were here for the services. Besides his wife, Mrs. May Johnson McClenney, other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Moody of Gulfport, Miss., and Mrs. Lela Hollingsworth of Breckenridge, Texas, a son, Charles of Heber Springs, a brother Lebert McClenney of Little Rock, two sisters, Mrs. Joe Liles of Rose Bud and Mrs. Ethel Barnes of San Antonio, Tex. Also eight grandchildren and several other relatives. Interment was in the Heber Springs cemetery in charge of the Olmstead funeral home."

It is also said that his wife's name was: Alphratta Devonshire, born in March, 1883 in Illinois.

Notes for ALPHARETTA DEVONSHIRE:

"Alpha" as she was known to her family died not long after she had her second child (a little boy). The child died a little later.
